

Collaborative People / Collaborative Marriages

Houston Texas

April 25-26, 2014

A Lifestyle of Mutuality for Men and Women

A conference for married couples, singles considering marriage, pastors, family life ministers, licensed professional counselors, family therapists, and social workers

Materials have been specially adapted for Christian Counseling from the Collaborative Marriage Skills Workshops and the Sound Marital House by John Gottman

Plenary Sessions (led by Gerald Ford and Kelsey Seifert):

Friday

Fabulous Marriage Takes Two

Saturday Morning

Beyond the Impasse Together

Saturday Afternoon

Caring about Me, You, and Us

Breakout sessions:

- 1. Taking Collaboration to Work (How the Egalitarian Mindset is Expressed in the Work-side of Life, and in Valuing Both Spouses' Contribution to Work.) - Dr. James Furr
- 2. Taking Collaboration to the Helping Professions (How the Counselor, Social Worker, Teacher, Minister, or Volunteer might introduce and demonstrate the Collaborative lifestyle to those they seek to help.) - Dr. Jerry Terrill
- 3. Taking Non-Collaboration Seriously (Being a Helper in the Midst of Family Violence and Spiritual Abuse) - Sarah Garay
- 4. Taking Collaboration to the Bank (Money Management for the Egalitarian marriage)-Kelsey Seifert and Spencer Seifert
- 5. Taking Collaboration to the House (When One Partner is Egalitarian and the Other is Not.) - Gerald Ford
- 6. Taking Collaboration to the Nations (Introducing Collaboration in Differing Cultural Contexts) - Dr. Ria Baker

Register Online at www.cbehouston.org or by mail

www.cbehouston.org * email cbehouston@gmail.com * www.hgst.edu

Location:

Houston Graduate School of Theology
(Willow Meadows Baptist Church Campus)
4300-C West Bellfort
Houston TX 77035

Register now! $125 Couples- $75 single - $35 Students

HGST
Houston Graduate
School of Theology

Sponsored by
Christians for Biblical Equality Houston Chapter
Houston Graduate School of Theology

